

1. Drugs with marketing authorization with an approved indication for use in neonates and children (on-label)
2. Best marketed (on-license) alternative
3. Extemporaneously compounded medicines, to ensure availability of the right dosage and formulations